

Enhancing Lives

Through Knowledge, Leadership, and Compassion

Activity Director and Social Services Director Training

OKAHSa has developed this seminar to address the varied needs of the activity and social services professionals working in long-term care. These areas are vital to providing life enrichment for your residents. Participants will learn how to provide the highest "quality of life" for those they serve.

This exceptional training experience will provide essential education to ensure that your staff will be effective, professional, and proficient in these important areas.

Completion of this training qualifies an individual to serve as a Social Services Director and/or Activity Director. See Education Credit.

Comments about the course:

“The best speaker I have heard in the 12 years I’ve been going to seminars.”

“I have been in activities for 3 years and I learned more this week than I have in the past 3 years about my job; Julie taught me so much and gave me so many tools to work with.”

“I have never been more entranced by a speaker/teacher.”

“She is a learned professional. I highly recommend every worker in the health care industry to take this seminar. She is a valuable asset to the field; Very good speaker.”

“She kept us all focused and taught us so much about what we do and who we truly are; She was great! Very professional, knowledgeable, and practical in her teaching.”

“Words can’t describe this wonderful experience!”

“One of the best instructors that I have watched, listened to, and could understand. She really makes us aware of the importance of social services and activity programs.”

“My team member completed this course and is so excited and ready to take on the world. How rewarding it is to see someone new to long term care so enthusiastic and ready to improve our residents lives.”

COMPLETION OF THIS 5-DAY COURSE WILL QUALIFY AN INDIVIDUAL TO SERVE AS AN ACTIVITY DIRECTOR OR SOCIAL SERVICES DIRECTOR
...in addition to providing reinforced education for current directors.
