an Operational & Clinical Update for

- MDS 3.0 Changes • Implications for Therapy
- SNF Payment Rates
- MDS Data Accuracy • QIS Survey Preparation

This fast moving session will cover a great variety of focus topics necessary for the senior operations and clinical managers to understand. Leah Klusch will discuss the specifics of implementation of the PPS Final Rule and the implications for payment and clinical documentation. Significant focus needs to be directed to the Rehab department management and training to ensure the residents have the proper skilled services and that documentation standards in the rule are addressed in each case. Learn proven methods of documentation for clinical staff to improve MDS Assessment accuracy including ADL Scores, interviews and skilled nursing. Preparation for the QIS Survey process will also be reviewed. This is a stimulating and interactive day of essential information for the facility leadership team.

OBJECTIVES

- Identify the MDS 3.0 process changes required by the PPS Final Rule - August 2011.
- Discuss the changes in therapy minute definitions and documentation processes for skilled therapy treatment that will be implemented 10-1-11.
- Review the PPS payment Rates in the final rule and the comparison between the FY '11 and FY '12 RUG payment system.
- Describe specific strategies to improve documentation and assessment data using the revised RAI Manual definitions.
- Discuss the preliminary steps to prepare for QIS survey implementation and review key data in the MDS 3.0 data set that supports the survey process.

FACULTY

Leah Klusch, Alliance Training Center, is one of the nation's leading experts on the MDS 3.0 process and its implications for successful facility management. She has over 40 years experience in the care of the elderly and operational systems for successful facility management.
